

Toys Timeline

Victorian Era

1837-1901

20th century

Grandparent's toys
(1950's-60's)

20th century

Parents toys
(1980's)

21st Century

Your toys
(2019)

Prior Learning

- Recognising how toys work overtime.
- Names of common materials and what they feel like.
- Chronology of my family history knowing that people born before me are older.
- Developing an understanding of changes over time and using time language to reflect this.
- Looking closely at similarities and differences over a period of time.

Vocabulary Dozen

toy	An object designed for children to play with.
decade	A period of 10 years.
modern	A present or recent time.
past	When something has already happened.
Victorian	The time of Queen Victoria's reign 1837-1901.
Living memory	A time that can be remembered by people who are still alive.
Beyond living memory	Something that happened a long time ago and cannot be remembered by people living today.
20th century	The 20 th century was between 1901-1999.
21 st century	The 21 st century is now it started in 2000 and will end in 2099.
handmade	Objects that are made by hand and not machines.
electronic	Gadgets that make sounds, have screen, light up or have to be plugged in to work.
materials	What objects are made from for example: wood, glass, metal, fabric.

Key Questions

- How long have toys existed?
- What toys did Victorian children play with?
- What were toys made of during Victoria times and the modern age?
- How are modern toys different?
- How have toys changed over time?

